

Kandy, Sri Lanka
10.02.2025

ECHOES FROM THE CHAPTER HALL DAY TEN

With hearts centered on Christ, we began the day, embracing the call to carry the cross and surrender all for His sake.

The deepest insights, the “gems” of our reflections, have been carefully gathered and placed in six treasured trays. However, the time to unveil them is not yet here.

LIKE A SCULPTOR

REFINING A

MASTERPIECE, WE

CHISEL, POLISH,

AND SHAPE THEM

WITH PATIENCE.

This requires time, care, and discernment. We remain engaged in this sacred process, allowing the Spirit to guide us. When the moment arrives, we will unveil the treasures, confident that they will enlighten and inspire us to move ahead with paschal hope.

