ECHOES FROM THE CHAPTER HALL

DAY FIFTEEN

Our journey into the cave was a thrilling and transformative experience, revealing hidden potential within us. It challenged us to let go of our fears and anxieties, completely trusting God.

Guided by the following questions, we devoted ourselves to finalising our orientations with renewed depth:

- Lord, what are You saying to us?
- Where are You leading us at this moment in history?
- Could it be that God is inviting us to look beyond what is familiar and comfortable?

The old ways of understanding a Chapter must be set aside to make space for the God of newness. He calls us to step into fresh beginnings in every aspect of our journey.

Are we ready to step into the uncertainties of the future with faith and trust,

allowing the Spirit to mould and guide us?
