Dear Sisters,

Nothing happens without the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

This day, the delegates have set aside a sacred time for reflection and prayer, opening their hearts to the Lord's guidance as they seek to discover God's will for our Congregation today. This is a moment of grace, a renewal of our commitment, and a celebration of the precious gift of our vocation to consecrated life. We are invited to Consider our image and understanding of God.

We warmly invite each of you to unite with us in spirit, lifting your hearts in prayer as we journey together in faith and mission.

Wishing you all a deeply meaningful and joy-filled consecrated life.

With love and prayers,

Sr. Rose
